

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to highly recommend Farzad for any software development position he may be seeking. Farzad has been an invaluable member of the Saveeye team from August 2024 through January 2025, where he has consistently demonstrated exceptional skill, dedication, and reliability.

He has worked a total of 640 hours during this period.

During his tenure with us, Farzad has worked extensively with a variety of technologies, including Django, AWS Lambda functions, and IoT Core. His expertise in these areas has been instrumental in developing and maintaining our robust solutions. Farzad's ability to quickly grasp complex concepts and apply them effectively has significantly contributed to the success of our projects.

Farzad has shown remarkable responsibility and leadership in his role. He has taken on significant responsibilities, ensuring that our solutions are not only functional but also scalable and efficient. His proactive approach and problem-solving skills have made him a go-to resource for the team.

In addition to his technical abilities, Farzad is a team player who communicates effectively and collaborates well with others. His positive attitude and willingness to help his colleagues have fostered a productive and supportive work environment.

I am confident that Farzad will be a valuable asset to any organization he joins. His technical expertise, combined with his dedication and collaborative spirit, make him an outstanding candidate for any software development role.

Sincerely,

Erik Hougaard
